I hired her to be my girlfriend. To fix my reputation. To save my career. What could possibly go wrong? It's not that I don't want a girlfriend. I do. I want it all. Wife, kids, side-by-side burial plots. The problem is - I can't have any of it. So I've made myself untouchable. The quintessential bachelor of baseball. Because it's not worth the risk. Not even for someone I love. Especially not for someone I love.

They call me a hero. I save people. It's what I do. It's the only thing I've ever wanted to do. Then I meet her - the girl with the sad eyes. She's lost everything. Twice. And I know she's using me to forget her past. Just when things seem perfect, that past threatens with the unimaginable. They may call me a hero. But she's the one person I can't save.

Fast balls. Fast cars. Fast women. They are how I've learned to cope. But then life throws me a curveball. And I may never play the game I love again. Then I meet her. She represents everything I've lost. In the best and worst of ways. She may be the only one who can get me back in the game. And I'm not just talking about baseball.

Charlie Tate doesn't live by the rules. Ethan Stone is bound by them. When Charlie returns home after five years away, she has only one thing on her mind - revenge. When she enlists the help of Ethan, a private investigator, she has him challenging many of his rules. And Charlie begins to look at him as she has never been able to look at any other man. Both damaged by the past, can one teach the other about the power of forgiveness? A story of question isn't how to save the world—the question is, what to do with the time that's left? Against this stark backdrop, three island teens wrestle with intertwining stories of love, friendship and family—all with the ultimate stakes at hand. Alexandra Coutts's TUMBLE & FALL is a powerful story of courage, love, and hope at the end of the world.

Promises were made. Sometimes, however, they're made to be broken. I was six years old when we met. I think I secretly fell in love with him that very first day, when he saved me from a bully at our bus stop. From that day on, we were inseparable. He was my neighbor. My partner in crime. My best friend. When I was fifteen, his family moved across the country, tearing us apart. Then he had to go and become famous. And rich. And reckless. He became addicted to women, drugs, and money. But I remember a time when the only thing he was addicted to was me. I've spent nine years trying like hell to fill the void. But the huge hole in my heart can't be filled because when he left, he took my heart with him. Now, when I see him through the crowd and the camera flashes, I wonder if he even recognizes me—the innocent girl from his past. He's different now. He even has a different name. When he shows up on my doorstep offering me everything I've ever dreamed of—him—I can't help but recall the age-old idiom: Be careful what you wish for.

Mikayla Parker was happy, or so she thought. She had it all—a prized medical residency, a brilliant boyfriend, and a bright future. In the blink of an eye that all changed. The world . . . a different place. Her boyfriend's fate . . . unknown. Mikayla now faces a new future full of difficult choices.

Enter Mitch Matheson, a mysterious stranger who turns her world upside down. He has her questioning everything—her hope, her love, her plans for a future that may not even exist anymore. But Mitch has a promise to keep. To whom, he doesn't know. Memories from the past few years of his life are lost as a result of the very same injury that landed him on Mikayla's doorstep. They find themselves inexplicably drawn to each other and soon discover they share an unimaginable connection—one with enough power to strengthen their bond . . . or ultimately tear them apart. A story about hope . . . A story about promises . . .A story about new beginnings . . .

She'd be the perfect catch if he could take his eye off the ball. Emmy Kasper knows exactly how lucky she is. In a sport with few opportunities for women at the pro level, she's just landed her dream job as head athletic trainer for the San Francisco Felons baseball team. Screwing up is not an option. She's lost in thought as she pedals to the spring training facility, her mind abuzz with excitement as she rounds a corner-and plows head-on into two runners. The end of her career dances before her eyes when she realizes she's almost run over the star pitcher. As Tucker Lloyd watches the flustered Emmy escape with his bandana tied around her skinned knee, the view is a pleasant change from worrying about his flagging fastball. At thirty-six, the tail end of his career is glimmering on the horizon. If he can't pull something extraordinary out of his ball cap, the new crop of rookies could make this season his last. The last thing either of them needs is a distraction. The last thing either of them expects is love.
