Did you ever wonder what goes on in the mind of a three year old boy? This book enters the mind of such a boy when he is left with no one to play with and is too young to go to school. The author attempts to share that with you using a unique pattern of rhyme to express the child's inner thoughts. Come with me to the world of slugs, bugs and yellow boots! Do three year olds hate to take a nap in the afternoon? Naps are dreaded almost as much as peanut butter sandwiches are desired. How much does a
