This book discusses "tourism and hospitality" from different perspectives and disciplines. In addition, this book, considering the tourism and hotel management terminology, is expected to be a source book for the theoretical and practical scientific studies in the fields which is in close relationship such as gastronomy, recreation and marketing.

The label CLIL stands for classrooms where a foreign language (English) is used as a medium of instruction in content subjects. This book provides a first in-depth analysis of the kind of communicative abilities which are embodied in such CLIL classrooms. It examines teacher and student talk at secondary school level from different discourse-analytic angles, taking into account the interpersonal pragmatics of classroom discourse and how school subjects are talked into being during lessons. The analysis shows how CLIL classroom interaction is strongly shaped by its institutional context, which in turn conditions the ways in which students experience, use and learn the target language. The research presented here suggests that CLIL programmes require more explicit language learning goals in order to fully exploit their potential for furthering the learners' appropriation of a foreign language as a medium of learning.

Study & Master Accounting was developed with the help of practising teachers, and covers all the requirements of the National Curriculum Statement for accounting.

Study & Master Accounting Grade 10 has been especially developed by an experienced author team according to the Curriculum and Assessment Policy Statement (CAPS). The comprehensive Learner's Book includes: * case studies which deal with issues related to the real world, and move learners beyond the confines of the classroom * margin notes to assist learners with new concepts - especially GAAP flashes, that give learners guidance on General Accepted Accounting Practice * examples with solutions after the introduction of each new concept. The Teacher's File includes: * a daily teaching plan, divided into the four terms, that guides the teacher on what to teach per day and per week * moderation templates to assist teachers with assessment * solutions to all the activities in the Learner's Book. The CD-Rom with a PowerPoint presentation includes:
