Something Special contains many stimulating ideas for seasonal art and craft--including Halloween masks and animal masks; Christmas decorations and a Christmas calendar; creative gardening; Easter craft; paper flowers; ideas for the school fair; greeting cards for Valentine's Day, Christmas, and more.

Hundreds of proven hands-on activities, carefully outlined and using inexpensive materials, emphasize learning by doing, encourage creativity, and afford opportunities to develop responsibility. Organized into 19 thematic units (from "Marvelous Me" to "Summertime and the Sun") and correlated to the school-year calendar, the activities cover key curriculum areas such as language arts, math, and science; they also involve art, music, cooking, movement, block play, and role plays. Jargon-free and clearly written, the book is also a great resource for parents. Grades preK-K. 302 pages. Good Year Books. Second Edition.

Recycle, revamp and rejuvenate; with over 50 projects Sarah covers a whole spectrum of imaginative ideas for every room of the house, from blanket curtains to patchwork wallpaper, clever storage crates to fun mobiles for children, as well as unique ideas for dining, sleeping and bathing. Interweaved throughout the book are ideas for 'one thing four ways' to show how the same piece of furniture or a room can be updated with different look, plus handy advice on essential kit and techniques. Aimed at all skill levels, the projects can be completed in a few hours or over a weekend so you can revamp and refurbish your home in no time at all.

Of all pets, horses might be the biggest. To those who ride and show horses, they're just as lovable as a dog or cat. This book guides horse-loving readers through more than 10 crafts, including those made to beautify their horse, such as a ribbon browband and tie-dye saddle cloth. Projects like horseshoe art, a horse photo frame, grooming organizer, and more allow horse superfans to express their creative side while they work on reading and following step-by-step directions.
